TITLE 22—FOREIGN RELATIONS

CHAPTER I—DEPARTMENT OF STATE

PART 32—VALIDATION AND ISSUANCE OF PASSPORTS DURING EXISTENCE OF WAR

ADDITIONAL REGULATIONS

§ 32.9 Passport to contain name of each country citizen intends to visit and object of visit. In view of the exigencies of international travel, particularly the spread of military operations, the increasing hazards and difficulties involved in foreign travel and residence, and the fact that after October 16, 1940, male citizens between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-five years will be required, before departing from the United States, to obtain a permit on Form 351 to leave this country, the Secretary of State has deemed it desirable to revert to the former policy of the Department of State of setting forth in each passport issued by it or under its authority the names of the countries which the citizen intends to visit and the object of the visit to each country named in the passport. This policy shall become effective at once and shall apply to passports heretofore issued and presently valid, as well as to passports which may hereafter be issued, with the exception of passports intended for use in countries of the Western Hemisphere. In consequence, no passport heretofore issued shall be valid for travel from the United States to any foreign country requiring such a document, except countries of the Western Hemisphere, unless it is first submitted to the Department of State for validation in the same manner as is provided for by §§ 32.1-32.8 issued September 4, 1939,¹ for the validation of passports for use in traveling from the United States to any country in Europe. In submitting a passport to the Department for validation for use elsewhere than in the countries of the Western Hemisphere, a person to whom such document was issued must also state the names of the countries in which he intends to travel, the reason for his intended travel to each country named and, if the reason for the proposed travel to each such country is susceptible of documentary corroboration, he should submit such documentary corroboration. The provisions of §§ 32.1-32.8 shall apply, so far as may be practicable, to travel elsewhere throughout the world except in countries of the Western Hemisphere, save that where an individual desires to travel to a country in which conditions are normal and the routes of travel thereto are reasonably safe, in applying the test of necessity for such travel a more lenient policy will be followed. (Sec. 1, 44 Stat. 887; 22 U.S.C. 211a; Proc. No. 7856, Mar. 31, 1938)

§ 32.10 Previous regulations still effective. However, nothing in §§ 32.9-32.10 shall be construed as rendering ineffective the provisions of the regulation of November 6, 1939,¹ under which an American citizen may not travel on a vessel of a belligerent country on or over the North Atlantic Ocean north of 35 degrees north latitude and east of 66 degrees west longitude except when specifically authorized to do so. The authorization may be granted by the Passport Division of the Department of State. American consular officers in the Dominion of Canada and in Newfoundland are authorized to endorse passports for travel on a vessel of a belligerent state in any case where the vessel begins its journey in a port in the Dominion of Canada or in Newfoundland, including Labrador, and ends at a port in any such place or the United States, provided the vessel is not scheduled to travel, between the beginning and ending of any such journey, in the waters above mentioned, except in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, Hudson Strait and the coastal or contiguous waters of the Dominion of Canada or Newfoundland, including Labrador, which are customarily navigated between points on these coasts.
